PROFILE

Hannah is a qualified and experienced costume technician within the film, television, live performance theatre and dance industries.

Specialising as an On-Set Costumier (Standby and Dresser) and Off-Set Designer & Supervisor (workroom manufacture).

She has untaken almost every role within the Costume department navigating her own way to fully understand the creative industry as a whole, focusing on using the detailed medium and art of costume to do so.

Passionate about collaborating with Aotearoa's vast creative community - the full spectrum of technicians, artists, directors and performers to visually create and 'tell stories' as one united force.

Hannah is a confident, hardworking, diligent, kind and charismatic force whose energy is always appreciated on and off set by talent, crew, colleagues and rangatahi alike.
